

Health Systems: Building through Disruption

The impact of the pandemic, compounded by geopolitical conflicts and socio-economic turbulence, is disrupting healthcare globally and hitting the vulnerable the hardest. What is needed to unlock equitable access for all while building crisis-resistant health systems?

Novartis CEO Vas Narasimhan joined the WEF session Health Systems: Building through Disruption.

Novartis leaders are at the World Economic Forum (WEF) Annual Meeting from January 16 to January 20, 2023 in Davos, Switzerland.
